AC-648

Speech Recognition Neckband Stereo Headset and Boom Mic

Don't want to mess up your hair, but still want drop-kick sound quality? Then the AC-648 stereo headset is the best choice for you. Slap the luxurious 30mm dynamic drivers over your ears and hold on. The in-line volume control and mute switch are easily accessible. The behind the head, wrap around head strap design fits any head comfortably, and the soft foam ear pads are just right for long periods of gaming and Voice Over IP use. After all, you don't have to look like a dork while wearing a headset.
